Fitness Quest 10 Senior Fitness Challenge
RULES SHEET Q & A

IMPORTANT REVISIONS 8/14/19

Q: What day and time is the Fitness Challenge?

A: Sunday September 22 from 9-11 AM at Fitness Quest 10.

Q: What is the schedule for the two hours?

9 AM Kickoff and Welcome by the Gym General Manager who will explain the events and their location. Any individual in any age group can compete at any time during the two hours in any of the ten events. Individuals planning to compete in all ten events must be finished no later than 11 AM, when medals will be handed out by gender, event, and the age groups below.

Q: What are the competition age ranges for medals?

A: In five year increments: 50-54, 55-59; 60-64, 65-69; 70-74, 75-80 etc.

Q: What should be considered in choosing the events to compete in? Must I do all?

A: No. Choose those that you know you can execute safely with proper form and may also be competitive in. FQ trainers will explain/demo technique, supervise each event for proper form, and document each contestant outcomes (eg # of reps, distance, time, appropriate metric) for each event.

Q: Must we do the events in a certain order?

A: No. Contestants may compete in their events in the order of their choosing but must finish their competition by 11 AM.

Q: Is it possible to compete in both weights for Events 1 (box squat) and 2 (bench press)?

A: No. For events 1 and 2, the contestant must pick only one weight they want to compete in, not both. Medals will be given for each of the weight options by gender and by each 5 yr age group.

Q: Will there be awards for most fitness events won overall?

A: No. Medals will be given for 1st, 2nd, 3rd place winners by gender, age group, and event.

Q: For the jump rope event: Can contestants keep jumping up to the one minute mark even if they miss a couple of rotations? Will all clear rotations during the one-minute be counted?

A: Yes, and yes.

Q: May contestants bring their own jump ropes or does every contestant need to use the ones at the gym?

A: No. Every contestant must use one of the jump ropes at Fitness Quest.

Fitness Quest 10 welcomes participation from individuals from other gyms in SD County as well as individuals in town for the California Senior Games that weekend. Registration for the Fitness Competition is $35+ $10 sports fee. Registration closes on September 18.
